Mrs. Ella S. Westland, president of the Federated Women's clubs for the scuthern district, replied to Father Fitzgerald's rebuke. She said women's cobs had done more than anything else to improve home conditions and protect children,

MAUIITES TO SEE 'REVOLVING WEDGE

The play "The Revolving Wedge" given by the students of the College of Hawaii at Thanksgiving is such a success that the members of the cast have decided to take the play to Mani where it will be presented during the Xmas holidays. This plan was suggested by a member of the cast and met with unanimous approval. The management corresponded with H. P. Weller, manager of the Maui theaters, Each month one of the members ar. for information as to all particulars and the answer being extremely satisfactory full plans for the trip were arranged

The cast and coaches are to leave Honolulu on the Claudine, Friday, December 27, for Kahului December 28 the first presentation of the play is to be given at Paia. The following Monday, December 30, the second performance will be given at Kahului. The third and last performance is to be given at Wailuku, Wednesday, January, 1. The cast will then return to Honolulu to resume school the next week.

Considering the success of the play as given at Thanksgiving there is no doubt but that it will be a still greater success on this Maui tour. The TO PAY TAXES play, as previously mentioned, is a football romance in one act dealing with the old and the new ideas of the proper observance of Thanksgiving day. The leading part, Mr. Martin, is to be taken by Clayton Couzens. who made such a hit at the recent production of the play. The Irish CHICAGO, Nov. 15,-Miss Belle maid, Nora, taken by Miss Shirley Squire, president of the No Vote, No Foster, is another part which made in bringing down the house every Clark, who was so successful in that theratening suit for non-payment of part at Thanksgiving, will be unable to accompany the cast to Mani but his place is to be taken by Chase Foster. The cast will then be as fol lows: Mr. Martin, Clayton Cousens; Nora, the Irish maid, Miss Shirley Foster: Nell, Miss Bernice Smith Bob, Chase Foster: Captain Dolan, Scott - ratt; Mrs. Martin, Miss Lilian Boyd; Dr. Brown, Harold Starratt Ned Biddle, Ted Tracy.
